

ZZAZZ Productions

Tracey Tarantino and her ZZAZZ PRODUCTIONS team rehearsed and staged the models for the Chicago Latino Fashion Show held at the Galleria Marchetti on November 4, 2007. The 1st Chicago Latino Fashion Week, celebrating unity and diversity in Chicago, was covered by national and international press. Latino and Caribbean fashion designers arrived with their collections to create an exciting tribute to style and fashion with their creations. The runway presentation was the highlight of the evening's cultural celebration. Tracey and team are consistently chosen to produce the most important fashion events in the Chicago area. www.zzazzproductions.com
